Making Space For The Inner World of Children

On Friday 26th January 2018, a one day event will take place in Arnhem, the Netherlands, for Dutch speaking IACS members and other professionals interested in children's spirituality.

Presentations will be given by Liesbeth Vroemen and Steve Younger. In the afternoon there are four parallel workshops, one of them an outdoor activity. The workshops will give participants a taste of a variety of methods for nurturing the inner world of children.
